

JERUSHAH RANGASAMI AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

September 2016: Travel award – What Works Global Summit in London to present a paper on generating and using various pieces of evidence to roll out a sex worker programme nationally.

June 2011: Travel award – International Impact Evaluation conference in Mexico where a paper was presented on “Impact of formal housing on quality of life”.

November 2009: Awarded one of four International Travel Awards for the American Evaluation Conference in Orlando Florida USA, where a paper was presented on context-appropriate evaluation methodologies

August 2009: Won best poster award at the second SAMEA Evaluation Conference – ‘eVALUation’ - for the poster titled “Effects of a clash in values between international donors and local evaluators”

March 2009: Received International Travel Award for the Network of Networks on Impact Evaluation (NONIE) and African Evaluation Association conference entitled ‘The International Conference on Impact Evaluation for Development Effectiveness’. Cairo, Egypt and presented paper on “Perspectives on impact evaluation: Approaches to Assessing Development Effectiveness”

August 2008: Awarded fourth place in the national Technology Women in Business (TWIB) awards

July 2008: Featured as a South African woman IT entrepreneur in the Microsoft and Trestle Group Foundation’s documentary entitled “Strengthening Local Software Economies”, premiered at the Microsoft Worldwide Partner Conference in Atlanta, USA

March-April 2008: One of 12 South African Women in ICT entrepreneurs selected for a professional development programme in the USA from the Innovation Hub and the University of Maryland and Baltimore

November 2007: Finalist for the Black Business Quarterly Entrepreneur award

March 2007: Featured on the cover of The Deal Magazine and featured as one of “SA’s Hottest and Brightest”

November 2006: Semi-finalist as the producer of a Multichoice VUKA Award for a Public Service Announcement (PSA) for the Centre for Early Childhood Development

June 2006: Businesswomen’s Association Regional Business Achiever of the Year (Start-Up)
December 2005: Cosmopolitan “Mover of the Month”

1997, 1998, 1999: UCT Faculty of Humanities: Dean’s Merit List for Academic Achievement

1997: Class Medals: Roman Literature and Thought; Philosophy 1: Introduction to Logic

1999: Class Medal: English Media Studies 3rd year

